The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about December 17, 2014 and October 22, 2013, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

2.40(b)(2) Attending Veterinarian and Adequate Veterinary Care....establish and maintain programs of veterinarian care that use appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries. (DIRECT)

You failed to provide adequate veterinary care to a female zebu and male llama had excessively long hooves, on December 17, 2014.

3.125 (a) Facilities, general. Structural strength. The facility must be constructed of such material and of such strength as appropriate for the animals involved. The housing facilities shall be structurally sound and shall be maintained in good repair to protect the animals from injury.

You failed to maintain the facility in good repair. A wall of the shelter in the outdoor portion of the North Pen housing one Zebu, one calf, one llama, nine sheep, and seventeen goats had nails and wood screws exposed with sharp ends protruding into the enclosure.

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
